QUT Eating Disorders Clinic

Services provided

- Medical monitoring by GP, RN and nursing students
- Dietetic interventions by dietetic students
- Social work support provided by a social worker and student team
- Exercise physiology interventions by exercise physiology students
- Psychotherapy by clinical psychology probationary psychologists

All student services provided under supervision by qualified registered practitioners.

Referral criteria

- Any age
- A diagnosis of an eating disorder other than Anorexia Nervosa
- No self-harming behaviour
- No high risk medical markers (e.g. blood pressure, electrolytes)

Referral process

General enquiries: 07 3138 9777
Fax number: 07 3138 6812

Referrals can be made by health professionals, parents (for clients 17 years or under) or self-referrals (for clients 18 years or older).

Health professionals can utilise the QUT Health Clinics referral form accessible through the QUT Health Clinics homepage www.healthclinics.qut.edu.au/enquiries-and-appointments/referral-form.jsp

Costs

GP services are bulk billed.
Student services are $40 per session (concession rates available).

Phone 07 3138 9777
44 Musk Avenue
Kelvin Grove Qld 4059
healthclinics.qut.edu.au

© QUT 2017 22954

fb.me/QUTHC